

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392979003316
Titolo	The Army no usurpers, or The late Parliament not almighty and everlasting [[electronic resource]] : shewing, that the present army in their former opposing, and late dissolving of the Parliament, have done nothing contrary to law, but according to equity. And that the late Parliaments claim of power to do what they please, until they should be dissolved by their own consent, is long since made void by their own act
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for Giles Calvert, at the sign of the Black-spread Eagle, at the West end of Pauls., 1653
Descrizione fisica	[4], 11, [1] p
Soggetti	Great Britain Politics and government 1642-1660 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Annotation on Thomason copy: "May. 20." Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018