

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996392989703316
Autore	Wither George <1588-1667.>
Titolo	Boni ominis votum: a good omen to the next Parliament [[electronic resource]] : expressed upon occasion of those extraordinary grand juries, lately summoned out of the most eminent baronets, knights, esquires, and gentlemen, in some counties, to serve at the summer assises, this year, 1656. // By a faithfull servant to this republick
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for John Hardesty, at the black Spread-Eagle in Duck Lane, or at his shop in the Strand nigh Worcester House., [1656]
Descrizione fisica	[2], 5, [1] p
Soggetti	Great Britain Politics and government 1649-1660 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Faithfull servant to this republick = George Wither; signed at end: Geo. Wither. Imprint date from Wing. In verse. A congratulatory poem on the Parliament of 1656. Cf. DNB. Annotation on Thomason copy: "By George Wither master of ye statute office given him by ye Lord Protector lately". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018