Titolo	The hypocrites ladder, or looking-glasse. Or A discourse of the dangerous and destructive nature of hypocrisie [[electronic resource]] : the reigning and provoking sin of this age. Wherein is shewed how far the hypocrite, or formal professor may go towards heaven, yet utterly perish, by three ladders of sixty steps of his ascending. Together with a looking-glass, clearly discovering that lurking sin of hypocrisie. As also another glass to try sincerity of grace by. // By Jo. Sheffield minister of the word at Swithins London
