

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996393089503316
Autore	Goad Christopher <1601-1652.>
Titolo	Refreshing drops, and scorching vials; [[electronic resource]] : severally distributed to their proper subjects, according to the wisdom given that precious servant of the Lord, Mr. Christopher Goad. Sometimes Fellow of Kings Colledge in Cambridge, and Batchelor in Divinity, as men speak: but before his translation, became a disciple and learner again, sitting at the feet of Christ and his Spirit, where he took a higher degree, and now sits with Christ in heaven
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed by R.W. for Giles Calvert, and the sign of the Black-spread Eagle at the west end of Pauls., 1653
Descrizione fisica	[16], 175, [1], 78 p
Altri autori (Persone)	SpriggJoshua <1618-1684.> WorsleyC J. N
Soggetti	Sermons, English
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	To the reader signed: Josh. Sprigg. Preface to the reader signed: C. Worsley. Poem to the memory of Mr. Goad signed: J.N. Includes two sermons: "The majesty of grace, or, The sovereignty of salvation", and "The secret and safe chambers". Annotation on Thomason copy: "June first". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018