

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| 1. Record Nr. | UNISA996393133603316 |
| Autore | Mullins James |
| Titolo | Multum in parvo: or, A summary narratiue (not hitherto revealed to publick view) on behalfe of prisoners captived for debt [[electronic resource]] : and of all concerned natives: faithfully extracted out of the fundamentall common-law of this nation, as well in its originall unaltured-puritie and genuine sence, as in recytall of and relating to the abusive practise of divers innovated lawes since repealed, repugnant to the Great Charter (being the abstract or compendium of the common-law, and of the peoples birth-rights, liberties, and priviledges) confirmed by above 30 subsequent Acts and Statutes, parliamentall in force and unrepealed (which unfold (velamine levato) the misprision and illegallity of arresting, outlawing, & imprisoning the body for debt. Now in these opportune times, (professing reformation and regulation of the lawes and generall grievances) presented (for timely redresse) to the clement propitious consideration of his excellency the Lord Generall Cromwell, his right honourable the Counsell of State; and others in authority, in the pensive vanne and mournfullest march of publick grievances and calamities, no sorrowes being equivalent to these |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa | London, : Printed for J.H. and are to be sold at the Royall Exchange [sic] in Corn-Hill., 1653 |
| Descrizione fisica | [2], 14 p |
| Soggetti | Debt, Imprisonment for - England Law reform - England |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese |
| Formato | Materiale a stampa |
| Livello bibliografico | Monografia |
| Note generali | Attributed to James Mullins. Annotation on Thomason copy: "June 30". Reproduction of the original in the British Library. |
| Sommario/riassunto | eebo-0018 |

