Note generali	Wing suggests Oxford as place of publication but, according to Madan, it is "no doubt printed in London .. possibly for William Webb". "A rare reprint of [Madan] no. 1390, and not vice versa, as may be deduced from the mistakes in the quotation on p.7 which in this issue is mangled through ignorance ('opprohia', 'diei', 'referr')"--Madan. A royalist publication. Annotation on Thomason copy: "June 26th". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
