

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996393208403316
Autore	Farmer Ralph
Titolo	The great mysteries of godlinesse and ungodlinesse [[electronic resource]] : The one opened from that eternall truth of the un-erring Scripture of the ever-blessed Jesus. The other discovered from the writings and speakings of a generation of deceivers, called Quakrrs [sic]. Wherein their sathanicall depths, and diabolicall delusions, not hitherto so fully known, are laid open. And that which (as they often say) they have to deliver to the world, which it is not yet able to receive, is most probably manifested, a little before their time. To the rendring them and their way abhorred to all true Christians. Unfolding also, the delusive manner of their arguings, answerings, and discoursings. In all which their chief endeavour is, to conceale themselves and their opinions from being known and discovered. // Published for the reducing of such as are seduced: and the establishing such as yet stand, from being seduced by them: by Ra: Farmer, a servant of that Jesus Christ that was crucified at Jerusalem above sixteen hundred years ago
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed by S.G. for William Ballard, book-seller in Corn-street, at the sign of the Bible in Bristoll : and Joshua Kirton in Pauls Church-yard., 1655
Descrizione fisica	[10], 95, [1] p
Altri autori (Persone)	BennettPhilip, minister BurroughEdward <1634-1662.> HowgillFrancis <1618-1669.> AtkinsonChristopher <active 1652 or 1653-1655.>
Soggetti	Quakers
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes: Farmer, Ralph. Mysterie. Babylon the great; Philip Bennett, Edward Burrough and Francis Howgill. Answers to several qveries put forth to the despised people called Quakers (this includes Burrough and Howgil's "Answers to several other subtil queries, &c."), 1654; Atkinson, Christopher. The sword of the Lord drawn and furbish's against the man of sin, 1654. Each has a separate dated title page; pagination and register are continuous. With an errata leaf, pp. [9-10].

Annotation on Thomason copy: "Jan: 23 1654". The last 5 in 1655 has been crossed out. On title page of the Sword of the Lord: "Jan: 22". Imperfect; Thomason copy lacks errata.

Reproductions of the originals in the British Library (Thomason Tracts) and Union Theological Seminary Library, New York (Early English Books).

Sommario/riassunto

eebo-0158
