Titolo	Cathedrall newes from Canterbury [[electronic resource]] : shewing, the Canterburian Cathedrall to bee in an abbey-like corrupt, and rotten condition, which cals for a speedy reformation, or dissolution: vvhich dissolution is already foreshowne, and begun there, by many remarkeable passages upon that place, and the prelates there; amongst which passages of wonder is, the Archbishop of Canterburies passing-bell, rung miraculously in that Cathedrall. Recorded, and published by Richard Culmer, minister of Gods word, dwelling in Canterbury: heretofore of Magdalen Colledge in Cambridge, Master of Arts. Imprimatur, John White. I have perused this relation of Cathedrall newes, & therein observe, that the hand of providence hath, indeed, wrought a new thing in our Israel, worthy to be looked upon by all, with a due mixture of wonder, and thankfulness: & therefore conceive it necessary to bee published to the view of all.
