

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996393335803316
Autore	W. L, a faithful petitioner and careful practitioner for the peace and welfare of the church and people of God.
Titolo	The bramble berry: or, A briefe discourse touching participating in mixt assemblies at the Sacrament of the Lords Supper [[electronic resource] ] : wherein is most full and cleare satisfaction given to every weak and doubting Christian, both by testimony out of Gods Word, and many invincible reasons and arguments for that purpose, grounded upon the same, wherein is first principally discussed and resolved these three maine questions following: 1. Whether the Congregationall assemblies in England be true churches of Jesus Christ, yea or no? 2. Whether it be lawfull to participate at the Sacrament of the Lords Supper among carnall and prophane men? 3. Whether the admitting of ungodly men to the table of the Lord be sufficient warrant for ministers to desist the publike administration of the Sacrament, or for particular members to decline it, or separate themselves? Secondly, briefe and satisfactory answers given to all the principall places of Scripture alleadged to maintaine a separation from our church assemblies, besides their arguments and allegations sufficiently resolved: set forth for the benefit of the tender conscience. By W. L. a faithfull petitioner and carefull practitioner for the peace and welfare of the church and people of God
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Printed at London, : by Richard Cotes, 1643
Descrizione fisica	[6], 54, [4] p
Soggetti	Lord's Supper Congregationalism
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Annotation on Thomason copy: "June 26". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018