

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996393431103316
Autore	Whitfield Thomas, Minister of the Gospel
Titolo	The doctrines of the Arminians & Pelagians truly stated and clearly answered: or, An examination and confutation of their ancient errors, which by the Church of Christ in former ages were justly abhorred, but of late under the names of Comfortable truths to be embraced are newly published [[electronic resource] ] : Concerning I. The universality of Gods free-grace in Christ to mankind. II. Concerning election. III. Redemption. IV. Conversion. V. Perserverance. Wherein the principal arguments brought to maintaine the orthodox faith are propounded, and the principal objections against them answered. // By Thomas Whitfield, minister of the gospel at Bugbrook in Northampton-shire. The Tares of Arminian heresie showed in former times (and by the help of prelatial influence then given to them increasing) and now growing up so much in these; I conceive this book wherein the author doth learnedly state and confute those opinions, is very worthy the publike light. Joseph Caryl
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for John Bellamie, and are to be sold at his shop at the three golden Lions in Corn-hill near the Royall Exchange, 1652 [i.e. 1651]
Descrizione fisica	[2], 99 [1] p
Altri autori (Persone)	CarlyJoseph <1602-1673.>
Soggetti	Christian life Arminianism - England Congregationalists
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Annotation on Thomason copy: "Nouemb. 20th". Thomason copy bound with items from November 1651. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018