

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996393602303316
Titolo	An agreement prepared for the people of England [[electronic resource]] : and the places therewith incorporated, for a secure and present peace, upon grounds of common right freedom and safety. Also, a declaration of the General Council of Officers, concerning the same. With a petition of his Excellency and the said General Council, presented therewith, Saturday, January 20. 1648. To the honorable the Commons of England in Priliament [sic] assembled. Here tendred to the peoples considerations, and in due time for their subscriptions. By appointment of the Generall Council of Officers of the army. Signed, John Rushvorth, sec'
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed for John Partridge, R. Harford, G. Calvert, and G. Whittington, MDCXLIX. [1649]
Descrizione fisica	[2], 16, 15-29 [i.e. 30] p
Soggetti	Great Britain Constitutional history Sources Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Page 30 is misnumbered 29. In another edition, page 30 is numbered correctly. "An agreement of the people" (p.7-26) is preceded by the petition of Lord Fairfax (p. 3-6). The answer of the House of Commons to the petition, dated "Die Sabbathi; 20. Januarii. 1649.", precedes title page. Reproduction of original in the Newberry Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0101