Record Nr.

Autore

UNISA996393999403316

Titolo

Alsted Johann Heinrich <1588-1638.>

Happy news to England sent from Oxford [[electronic resource]]: 1. the joyfull hopes of a peace and of an accomodation that is to be made between the king and his Parliament, 2. the kings intentions to come to his high Court of Parliament, 3. the preparations that is made for His Majesties coming to White Hall and the store of provisions of wine and other things that is laid in there for his entertainment, 4. the names of those lords that are nominated to goe to His Majesty with the answer to his late propositions and to know who his Majesty will nominate and appoint for the accomposition and treaty and the place where, 5, the security of hostage which is offered by foure noblemen, and also by their estates for the kings security there and his safe returne to his court at Oxford, if in case the Parliament and His Majesty doth not agree, 6. His Majesties returning to London is suddainly expected, will under God make all those lying astronomers and deceivers which prophesied of a great battaile prove false and counterfeit

Pubbl/distr/stampa

[London?, : s.n.], 1642

Descrizione fisica

[7] p

Soggetti

Great Britain History Charles I, 1625-1649

Lingua di pubblicazione

Inglese

Formato

Materiale a stampa

Livello bibliografico

Monografia

Note generali

Attributed to Johann Heinrich Alsted. cf. NUC pre-1956.

Reproduction of original in Thomason Collection, British Library.

Sommario/riassunto

eebo-0158