

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996394088603316
Autore	Crofton Zachary <1625 or 6-1672.>
Titolo	Three treatises all tending to Christian practice [[electronic resource] ] : First, the vertue and value of baptism, wherein the dignity and duty of baptism is doctrinally explained, and practically applyed. Second, the hard way to Heaven, intended to be preached at Michaels Cornhil, but by reason of the extraordinary concourse of people, preached at Creet-Church the day after the authors coming out of the Tower. Third, reformation not separation, or Mr. Croftons plea for communion with the Church of England, notwithstanding those administrations by which he cannot administer. A work suited to these times, and may serve as a guide to private Christians in their publique and private worship. By Zach. Crofton late minister of Botolph Aldgate, Lond
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : [s.n.], Printed in the year, 1663
Descrizione fisica	[30], 117, [11], 39, [9], 74, [15], 28 p
Soggetti	Baptism Catechisms, English Children - Religious life Christian life
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	"The hard way to Heaven" has title page dated 1662, separate pagination and register. "Reformation not separation: or, Mr. Crofton's plea for communion with the Church," has title page dated 1662, separate pagination and register. "Appendix to the foregoing letter ..." has an undated title page, pagination and register are continuous. "The Great benefit of the Christian education of children" has an undated title page, pagination and register are separate with Sig. A missigned B. Reproduction of original in Dr. Williams' Library, London, England.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0037