

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996394181903316
Titolo	A new remonstrance from thf [sic] souldiery, to his Excellency the Lord General Fairfax [[electronic resource]] : and their proposals, in the name of themselves, and all the commons of England, for a just and righteous government, to be established within this nation, abhorring and detesting against all anarchy, confusion, and levelling of mens estates; with their proclamation to the kingdome, concerning the putting of violence upon authority. Also, a new representative, and the heads of the agreement of the people, the King nor Lords, to have no voice in it; the Parliament to be dissolv'd on the last of April next, and a new one to be called once in two year, and to continue but sixe moneths. Likewise, the manner and form of the government, and no corporation, above one, except the City of London. Together with a letter from the Earl of VVarwick, to the House of Peers, concerning Prince Charles, and the two navies
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed for Robert VWilliamson, 1648
Descrizione fisica	[2], 6 p
Altri autori (Persone)	WarwickRobert Rich, Earl of, <1587-1658.> FairfaxThomas Fairfax, Baron, <1612-1671.>
Soggetti	Great Britain History Civil War, 1642-1649 Early works to 1800 Great Britain Politics and government 1642-1649 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Annotation on Thomason copy: "Dec: 15". Reproduction of original in the Columbia University Library, New York, New York.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0027