

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996394365903316
Titolo	An order from the Committee, that eleven thousand three hundred horse should be conducted by Sir Simon Harecolt into Ireland [[electronic resource] ] : As also, letters read in the Parliament, sent from the Mayre of Dublin and other justices of the peace, how Tredagl is besieged and Dublin in great feare of the rebels. As likewise the Spanish fleet overthrown in the sea, going to assist the rebels in Ireland. In a relation of a great uumber [sic] of Spaniards that were resolved to go into Ireland, and helpe the rebels to persecute the Protestants there more cruelly. Being the just judgement of God on those bloudy minded tyrants, shewing how in a suddaine tempest they were all drowned in the devouring sea. With the copy of a letter sent from the Spanish fleet to the Lord Donmadoffe the arch-rebel in Ireland
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for WR, 1642
Descrizione fisica	[8] p
Soggetti	Ireland History Rebellion of 1641 Early works to 1800 Wicklow (Ireland : County) History Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	First part noted in ms. on title page as "wanting"; actually bound after "The Spanish fleet overthrown..." Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018