Note generali	Dated: Given at Our Court at Whitehal, the Thirtieth day of May, in the Twelfth Year of Our Reign. "On his restoration the King desires to discourage those that would 'prevent that reconciliation and union of hearts and affections' so necessary. Others show their loyalty by drinking to the King's health in taverns, tippling houses, and debauches. All persons of honour are to discourage these proceedings"-- cf. Steele. Reproduction of the original in the British Library (Thomason Tracts) and the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery (Early English books, 1641-1700).
