Autore	Marsin M
Titolo	A clear and brief explanation upon the chief points in the New-Testament [[electronic resource] ] : where by laying Scripture to Scripture it is fully proved what is the faith that justifies, and what it is to be a believer : also the faith of Abraham clearly explained, and all other controversial points relating to faith, plainly stated and answered : with the remnant and first churches peculiar call, also the more general callings : likewise proving that the law and Gospel speaks only to those that are under them : the whole laid down in a plain, and easie method, fitted to the understanding of the meanest reader // by M.M
