

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996394581203316
Titolo	Exceeding good and joyfull neeves from Hull [[electronic resource] ] : Being, the faithfull and deserving service of Sir Iohn Hotham; who by reasom [sic] of some mutinous outrages committed by some Cavaleers, and for the avoiding of future mischiefs, burnt up the bordering and adjacent towns about Hull. Also, the desire of Sir Iohn Hotham, concerning the reparation of some losses; which he and some other captains in Hull sustained, by the insolent carriage of some Cavaleers. With the Parliaments answer to the said desires. Together with the project of the Earle of Lindsey, to raise forces in Lin in Norfolk; and the prohibition of the House of Parliament to the said county, forbidding them to obey the said summons, and raising of forces. Hen. Elsyng. Cler. Parl. D. Com
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed for Iohn Cave, August 12. 1642
Descrizione fisica	[8] p
Soggetti	Great Britain History Charles I, 1625-1649 Early works to 1800 Hull (England) History 17th century Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	At end of text: Ordered that this be printed and published. Hen. Elsyng. Cler. Parl. D. Com. Copy closely cropped at head, possibly affecting pagination. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018