Titolo	A rod discover'd, found, & set forth to whip the idolaters till they leave off their idolatry [[electronic resource]] : (wch yet remains in the rulers of England, their ministers, and the people, who follow their wayes) which doth consist in the houses of high places, falsly called churches; the two universities Cambridge and Oxford, (and their ministers, which are made by man, and not of God) and their ministers maintenance (not the ministers of Christ(s) which is portions of lands, tythes, offrings, oblations, obventions, and great houses for a certain dwelling place on the earth, and forms of oaths, all which is the fruit of idolaters, and the abomination of the heathen. And likewise here is described the true magistrate and his work; and the way (for he who is not) to become such a one; and likewise the way for all people to come out of their idolatry; to worship the true God in spirit and in truth. Unto which is prefixed the Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Laodiceans. // Written by me Henry Clark
