

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996394821303316
Autore	T. L
Titolo	Polyentheos threnodia= [[electronic resource] ] : The mourners song. Or a voyce out of the wilderness crying, with many tears and strong perswasions to the world for repentance. Proving by undeniable grounds from the word of God, that the great day of his righteous judgement shall certainly be in this present age, before 61. years after this present yeare 1651. shall be expired. And unfolding many great and wonderfull mysteries of God forespoken in his word, to come to passe and be fulfilled, from the rising of Julius Cæsar, first emperour of Rome, to this present time, and from hence to that great day of the Lord. ... Exprest in a very high prophetical stile, and clear evidence of the spirit, and of power from above, which the judicious Christian reader may well perceive
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed by M. S[immons]., 1651
Descrizione fisica	[6], 52, [4], 28, [4], 67, [15] p
Altri autori (Persone)	T. L
Soggetti	Rome History Empire, 30 B.C.-284 A.D Prophecies Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Initials T.L. appear in the "Epistle dedicatory"; sometimes attributed to Thomas Legate (cf. STC). Another edition of this work was published as: A voyce out of the wilderness crying. Printer's name from added title page imprint. Each part has individual dated title page and appropriate running title; all except "An advertisement to Q. Elizabeth" have separate pagination and register, were also published separately. Marginal notes giving Biblical references. Copy has some print fade. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018

