

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996394884403316
Autore	Prance Miles <fl. 1678-1689.>
Titolo	The additional narrative of Mr. Miles Prance of Covent-Garden, Goldsmith [[electronic resource] ] : who was the discoverer of the murder of Sr. Edmondbury Godfrey. I. Containing a vindication of the said Mr. Prance from the scandalous and false aspersions (cast upon him, on purpose to invalidate his testimony) by the nameless author of a late scandalous libel, entituled, The Compendium, or a short view of the late tryals &c. II. His further discovery of the machinations and attempts of the papal and Jesuitical party, for the introducing their religion into these kingdoms, and for the overthrow of His Majestie's person and government. III. Many historical observations, discovering the progress of the said design, with other material passages relating thereunto. IV. The names of the several colledges beyond the seas, erected for the use of the English nation, whence priests and emissaries are yearly sent over into our land for the seduction of the people, and carrying on their other designs, with an account of the English nunneries also in forreign parts
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed for Francis Smith, Thomas Basset, John Wright, Richard Chiswel and Samuel Heyrick, M DC LXXIX. [1679]
Descrizione fisica	54, [2] p
Soggetti	Popish Plot, 1678 Conspiracies - England
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Signed on final leaf: Miles Prance. With an initial leaf bearing an order to print dated October the 8th. 1679. Text begins with a caption title on p. 14: A vindication of Mr. Miles Prance from the unjust and scandalous aspersions cast upon him by the nameless author of a pamphlet, entituled The compendium, or a short view of the late tryals, &c. Published as an addition to: Prance, Miles. A true narrative and discovery of several very remarkable passages relating to the horrid Popish plot. The "nameless author" of "The compendium, or a short view of the late tryals in relation to the present plot against His Majesty and government", published in 1679, was Roger Palmer, Earl of Castlemaine.

Second section of text begins with caption title on p. 29: A further narrative of Mr. Miles Prance.

Reproduction of original in the University of Illinois (Urbana-Champaign Campus). Library.

---

Sommario/riassunto

eebo-0167

---