

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| 1. Record Nr. | UNISA996394902903316 |
| Autore | Hall Joseph <1574-1656.> |
| Titolo | Mundus alter et idem siue Terra Australis ante hac semper incognita longis itineribus peregrini academici nuperrime lustrata auth: Mercurio Britannico [[electronic resource]] |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa | Francofurti [i.e. London, : Printed by Humphrey Lownes, sold] apud hæredes Ascanij de Rinialme, [1605?] |
| Descrizione fisica | [16], 224 p., [5] folded plates : ill., maps |
| Altri autori (Persone) | GentiliAlberico <1552-1608.> KnightWilliam <d. 1623.> |
| Soggetti | Satire, English |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Latino |
| Formato | Materiale a stampa |
| Livello bibliografico | Monografia |
| Note generali | Mercurius Britannicus = Joseph Hall. Sometimes attributed to Alberico Gentili. Editor's preface signed: Guilielmus Knight. The title page is engraved and signed "Wilhelmus kip sculpsit." State 1: the front of the pedestal framing the imprint is vertical. State 2: shading is diagonal. Printer's name supplied and publication date conjectured by STC. This edition has catchwords on all rectos; maps have page numbers. Copies occur with one or more leaves from the Hanau edition (catchwords on versos only, plates have no page numbers); these should be matched to STC 12685.3. See PBSA 74 (1980), p. 1-12 for further discussion. Reproduction of the original in the Folger Shakespeare Library. |
| Sommario/riassunto | eebo-0055 |