

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996394902903316
Autore	Hall Joseph <1574-1656.>
Titolo	Mundus alter et idem siue Terra Australis ante hac semper incognita longis itineribus peregrini academici nuperrime lustrata auth: Mercurio Britannico [[electronic resource]]
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Francofurti [i.e. London, : Printed by Humphrey Lownes, sold] apud hæredes Ascanij de Rinialme, [1605?]
Descrizione fisica	[16], 224 p., [5] folded plates : ill., maps
Altri autori (Persone)	GentiliAlberico <1552-1608.> KnightWilliam <d. 1623.>
Soggetti	Satire, English
Lingua di pubblicazione	Latino
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Mercurius Britannicus = Joseph Hall. Sometimes attributed to Alberico Gentili. Editor's preface signed: Guilielmus Knight. The title page is engraved and signed "Wilhelmus kip sculpsit." State 1: the front of the pedestal framing the imprint is vertical. State 2: shading is diagonal. Printer's name supplied and publication date conjectured by STC. This edition has catchwords on all rectos; maps have page numbers. Copies occur with one or more leaves from the Hanau edition (catchwords on versos only, plates have no page numbers); these should be matched to STC 12685.3. See PBSA 74 (1980), p. 1-12 for further discussion. Reproduction of the original in the Folger Shakespeare Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0055