

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996394924903316
Autore	Scott Thomas <1580?-1626.>
Titolo	The second part of Vox populi, or Gondomar appearing in the likenes of Matchiauell in a Spanish parliament [[electronic resource]] : wherein are discovered his treacherous & subtile practises to the ruine as well of England, as the Netherlandes. Faithfully transtated [sic] out of the Spanish coppie by a well-willer to England and Holland
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[Goricom [Gorinchem, i.e. London], : A Janss [i.e. N. Okes and J. Dawson], 1624]
Descrizione fisica	[6], 60 p. : ill
Soggetti	Spain Foreign relations 1516-1700 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Dedication initialed: T. S. of V. [i.e. Thomas Scott, B.D]. Imprint from STC because copy catalogued lacks imprint; actual place of publication and printers' names from STC; Dawson printed dedication. Engraved title page has blank spaces to left and right of Gondomar's head; leaf D3v line 1 begins: "thinke". This typesetting of the text, with title page altered, is reissued in STC 22103.7--STC. Identified as STC 22104a on UMI microfilm. Imperfect; title page cropped, affecting imprint. Reproduction of the original in the Folger Shakespeare Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0055