Titolo

A curious collection of musick-books, both vocal and instrumental, (and several rare copies in three and four parts, fairly prick'd) by the best masters [[electronic resource] ] : Formerly designed to have been sold by way of auction: but the reason of its being put off, was, that several gentlemen, lovers of musick, living remote from London, having a desire for some of this collection, and could not be there, they are here set down in order, with the rates, being lower than could be afforded otherwise. The collection is to be sold by Henry Playford, at his house at the lower end of Arundel-Street in the Strand; where the collection may be viewed four days after the publication in the Gazette. All gentlemen and ladies that desire any of these collections, sending in time the number and the price, may have them delivered, they being designed to be sold off in a fortnight
