

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996394986203316
Autore	J. C
Titolo	A warning for swearers [[electronic resource]] : by the example of God's judgments shewed upon a man born near the town of Wolverhampton, in Stafford-shire, who had stolen a Bible; and being examined before a justice, deny'd the fact, and falsly forswore it; wishing he might rot, if he were guilty of the theft; which (according to his desire) immediately fell upon him; and is at this time, a sad spectacle to hundreds that have beheld him: also, a relation of God's judgments shewed upon a woman, who lived in Worcester-shire; who falsly forswore her self, and [illegible] in a short time after, being immediately stuck dumb. J.C. Tune, Aim not too high
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed for W. Thackeray, T. Passenger, and W. VWhitwood, [1677]
Descrizione fisica	1 sheet ([1] p.) : ill
Soggetti	Ballads, English - 17th century God - Wrath Swearing Blasphemy
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Verse - "All you that do desire to hear and know,". Publication date from Wing. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018