Note generali	Signed: C. N. [i.e. Christopher Ness?] In answer to A letter to a noble peer of the realm, about his late speech and petition to His Majesty. Defends the Earl of Essex in particular and "The petition and advice of several peers" delivered 25 Jan. 1681 to King Charles asking him to give up Oxford as the place for the meeting of Parliament. Possibly an answer to A seasonable address which is attributed to George Saville, marquis of Halifax. Reproduction of original in Bodleian Library.
