Autore	Tyso John <d. 1700.>
Titolo	Something written to the magistrates of London and Middlesex [[electronic resource]] : who sit on the seat of justice, who are examples to the rest of the nation; or to whomsoever this may come, that they may see the fruits of their doings, and repent thereof. With a sound of God's judgements against Babylon and her merchants. Also, a manifestation of God's love to his people, and an invitation to all people to turn unto the Lord who waits to be gracious; yea, whose loving kindness is stretcht out to the ends of the earth. // By one who hath been a sufferer for the Truth's sake, John Tyso
