

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996395108303316
Autore	Kaye William
Titolo	Gods presence with the present government [[electronic resource] ] : plainly, remonstrated to the light that is in all men, whereby a word in season is hinted, especially to those that were in open hostility, shewing just grounds for their subjection, as they will apparently avoid fighting against God, through their resisting his chosen instruments, ordained for the suppressing of poperie, or antichrist, and for the preservation of all saints in their profession of reformation, the way to peace, and blessednesse // written by William Kaye, minister of the gospel at Stokesley in Yorkshire ... ; unto which is added, A further discovery in answering the Fifth Monarchists, and anarchists arguments, wherein the dominion of saints is truly stated, for their satisfaction
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed by T. Mabb for Richard Moon, and are to be sold at his shop in Pauls Church-yard, at the Seven Stars, 1655
Descrizione fisica	23 p
Soggetti	Fifth Monarchy Men Great Britain Politics and government 1649-1660 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Imperfect: stained, and with print show-through. Reproduction of original in: Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0009