

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996395206703316
Autore	Whitehead George <1636?-1723.>
Titolo	A few positions of the sincere belief and Christian doctrine of the people of God called Quakers [[electronic resource]] : (to obviate misrepresentations and calumnies about the same.) Being inserted as an appendix to a book, entitled, A sober expostulation with some of the clergy, &c
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed and sold by T. Sowle, next door to the meeting-house, in White-Heart-Court, in Gracious-Street, and at the Bible in Leaden-Hall-Street, 1699
Descrizione fisica	1 sheet ([1]) p
Altri autori (Persone)	WhiteheadGeorge <1636?-1723.>
Soggetti	Society of Friends - Doctrines Society of Friends Broadside17th century.England
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Caption title. Main body of the article is signed: "By George Whitehead." Final statement of the Quakers' doctrinal positions signed: "Signed in behalf of the said people, Thomas Lower, William Crouch, William Ingram [and 29 others]. This last declaration was subjoyned to a paper, intituled, The Quakers vindication, and given to the members of Parliament in the year 1693." Reproduction of original in: Magdalene College (University of Cambridge). Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0085