| Titolo | The fall of a great visible idol by the coming of the invisible povver, and substance [[electronic resource]] : In this day and time of the lambs war which is come. Wherein Christ the true light is exalted at the right hand of God, who dwells and walkes in his people which are his temple. Which doth bring down the boasting baptists that hath highly exalted themselves upon the high and dark mountains of their own imaginations, as may be known by their own principles which are herein answered with something to the simple hearted that are among them, concerning water baptism and breaking of outward bread, which these baptists hath so much idolized in the night.// From a true friend unto all that loves truth in the inward parts, in true love and pittty unto the lost sheep, that they may be of the house of Israel.
