Titolo	A just and lawful tryal of the teachers and professed ministers of this age and generation [[electronic resource]] : By a perfect proceeding against them. And hereby they are righteously examined, & justly weighed, and truly measured, and condemned out of their own mouths, and judged by their own professed rule, viz. the Scriptures, and thereby are proved to disagree, and be contrary to all the ministers of Christ in former ages; and to agree and concur with all the false prophets and deceivers in their call, in their maintenance, and in their doctrines, and conversation, and practice. And being brought to the bar of justice, these things are truly charged against them, and legally proved upon them, and their own professed rule (the Scripture) have judged them guilty. Whereunto is added, a short description of the true ministry of Christ; and of his lawful and just maintenance, according to the Apostles examples, and now again justified by the people of God called Quakers, in England. / / By a friend to England's Common wealth, for whose sake this is written and sent abroad.
