Note generali	Relief shown pictorially. 24 maps with various dating, accompanied by typescript notes. Some are from the set of 12 county maps known as the "Anonymous 1602-3 series", attributed to William Smith (STC 2nd ed. 22871a.3). The imprint of Hans Woutneel, a Dutch bookseller resident in London ca. 1580 - after 1604, has been engraved over the words "Christophorus Saxton descripsit". One map in this series is known to have been engraved at the Amsterdam workshop of Jodocus Hondius.

In: Smith (William) [A collection of county maps]. [London?] : [Hans Woutneel?], 1602-03.

Reproduction of original in: British Library.
