

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996395829703316
Autore	Carpenter Richard <d. 1670?>
Titolo	The downfall of Anti-Christ. Or, A treatise wherein is plainly discovered [[electronic resource]] : 1. That the Pope is Anti-Christ, and that Rome is Babylon. 2. The severall deceitfull workings, and enticing means that the Babilonish whore hath used to intoxicate the kingdoms of the earth with the wine of her fornication, ... 3. Probable conjectures that the Anti-Christian party have seene their best dayes, and that the Popish religion, and all the power of Rome shal more & more decay throughout al [sic] the churches of Europe, ... 4. That the destruction, and extirpation of Anti-Christ shall make way for the setting up the kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ in its glory and beauty, which alone is that which maketh a people or a nation truly happy-By R.C. An unworthy admirer of these things
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Printed at London, : for John Stafford, 1647
Descrizione fisica	[18], 246, 335, [1] p
Soggetti	Anti-Catholicism - England
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Dedication signed: Richard Carpenter. "The third booke" begins new pagination. Errata: p. [336]. Reproduction of original in Dr. Williams' Library, London, England.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0037