

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996395873703316
Titolo	The only table extant for all merchandizes serving for whole-sale and re-taile [[electronic resource]] : in weights & measures either little or great quantities being at any the prizes next standing round at the head of each collumne ready cast up The next round is multiplyed downwards (Note that 112 is to every hundred.) ... // Exam: by us [bracket] Charles Bunworth Abraham Colfe &c. [bracket] Accomptants
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[London], : [Sold] b[y], Arthur Tooker neere Salisbury House in the Strand and William Battersby at Thavies Inn-gate neere St. Andrews Church in Holborn Where you may also have the pyramid table of multiplication redy cast up, [1700?]
Descrizione fisica	1 sheet ([1] p.)
Altri autori (Persone)	BunworthCharles ColfeAbraham (Accomptant)
Soggetti	Merchants - England Weights and measures - England BroadSides17th century.England
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Consists entirely of a large circular woodcut(?) table with many numerical circular columns used to figure out what various weights and measures of product will cost both in the wholesale and retail trade. Engraved throughout. Place and date of publication suggested by Wing. At head of table: Licensed and entred according to order. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018