

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996396105003316
Autore	Pye John, Master
Titolo	A true and perfect account of a strange and dreadful apparition which lately infested and sunk a ship bound for New-Castle, called, The Hope-well of London [[electronic resource] ] : And of the strange deliverance of John Pye master, and nine men more; who were all examined and sworn to the following relation before Justice Wood of London. With allowance. Roger L'Estrange, March 30. 1672
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Edinburgh, : [s.n.], Re-printed in the year, 1672
Descrizione fisica	8 p
Altri autori (Persone)	JemsonNathaniel
Soggetti	Apparitions - England Shipwrecks - England
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Headpiece; initial letter. The account given in the first person by John Pye. The preface, "A letter from a friend, in reference to the following relation," signed: Nathan Jemson. Reproduction of the original in the National Library of Scotland.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0097