Note generali	Attributed to Thomas Scott by Wing; formerly erroneously attributed to Richard Dugdale. The projected marriage between Prince Charles, afterwards Charles I and Maria, the Infanta of Spain, entered largely into the negotiations here reported. Includes "The president's [i.e. the Duke of Lerma's] speech requiring the ambassador to give an account of his plots and wicked intrigues against England" and the ambassador's reply. Reproduction of original in the British Library.
