

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996396151103316
Autore	Bolton Edmund <1575?-1633?>
Titolo	Nero Cæsar, or Monarchie depraved. [[electronic resource]] : an historical worke. dedicated to the D of Buckingham L Admirall. Whereunto beside otherthings [sic], is now newly added the authors priuat account, to k. lames, concerning ye same, together with a parallel of places in Polybius & Florus. openning ye way of best profit in historie, to Mr. Endymion Porter heretofore, and now to all. By the translatour of L. Florus
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : [Printed by Thomas Snodham and Bernard Alsop], M dCXXVII [1627]
Descrizione fisica	[24], 288, 16 p. : ill. (metal cuts)
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	The translator of Lucius Florus = Edmund Bolton. The dedication is signed: Philonactophil. The title page is engraved and signed "Fr: Delaram sculptor". The roman numeral date is made with turned C's. Printers' names from STC 3221; "Alsop pr[inted]. B-M, Snodham the rest". "An historical parallel" (caption title) begins new pagination; register is continuous. A reissue, with new preliminaries (printed by Augustine Mathewes), added quires 2P-2Q, and engraved title page altered, of the 1624 edition. Some copies have the original 1624 letterpress title page remaining. Variant 1: title page in another state, with "work" in line 6 and lacking most of the punctuation. Variant 2: lacking the engraved medallions on p. 1, 64, et al. Reproduction of the original in Cambridge University Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0021

