

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996396229403316
Autore	Boekell Martin
Titolo	A remonstrance of some fallacies and mistakes, whereof the informers who have hitherto attempted against the House of the Stillyard, suppressing the truth, and by false suggestions deceiving at one those who do not heed, and those who are ignorant of the matter, or at least those who are too credulous, have made use of [[electronic resource]] : With particular answers to all, and a conclusion and petition on every point
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed by Tho. Newcomb, 1659
Descrizione fisica	15, [1] p
Soggetti	Merchants, Foreign - England - London Staple system
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Signed at end: Martin Boekell. Defends the right of the Hanseatic League to maintain their enclave at the Steelyard in London. Also an argument for continued trade between England and the League. Reproduction of the original in the Guildhall Library, London.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0059