Titolo	An invitation, from the spirit of Christ [[electronic resource] ] : to all that are a thirst, to come and drink of the waters of life freely, which proceed from the fountain of eternal life: shewing, how all may come, that are willing, to drink thereof to their full satisfaction; whereby they may attain unto perfect health and salvation of their souls for ever in the Lord Jesus Christ. And also, shewing what it is that hindereth people from being truly a thirst after the waters of life; and from coming to drink thereof; with the destructive quality of that which hindereth; and how it may be avoided, concluded, with a word to all singers, upon a religious or spiritual account. Written by one, who hath for a long time been deeply disstressed with thirst after the water of life; but, through mercy, hath obtained satisfaction thereby: known by the name of, Henry Mollineux
