

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996396292703316
Autore	Baldwin William <ca. 1518-1563?>
Titolo	A treatise of morall philosophy [[electronic resource] ] : contaynyng the sayinges of the wyse, wherein you maye see the woorthye and pythye sayinges of philosophers, emperors, kynges, and oratours: of their liues, their aunsweres, of what linage they came of, and of what countrey they were, whose woorthy sentences, notable preceptes, counsailes, parables and semblables, doe hereafter followe. First gathered and partly set forth by William Baudwin, and nowe the fourth time since thatenlarged by Thomas Paulfreyman, one of the gentlemen of the Queenes maiesties chapell
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[Imprinted at London, : In Fleetestrete within Temple Barre, at the signe of the Hand and Starre, by Richard Tottyll, the first of Iuly] Cum priuilegio ad imprimendum solum. 1579
Descrizione fisica	[10], 250 leaves
Altri autori (Persone)	PalfreymanThomas <d. 1589?>
Soggetti	Philosophers, Ancient Ethics
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	An edition of: Baldwin, William. A treatise of morall phylosophie. Place of publication and printer's name from colophon. In twelve books; the first consists of biographies. Reproduction of the original in the Folger Shakespeare Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0055