| Titolo | A most useful sermon preached in London, Aug. 7. 1670 [[electronic resource]] : By a most worthy and faithful minister and servant of Jesus Christ, most learnedly pressed from Amos 8. 11. ... From which text of scripture, he learnedly shews the dreadful and deplorable condition of that kingdom which a famine of the word of the Lord seizes upon; and further shews, that they are the greatest felons who would rob us of the word of God, and that there is more justice in Hell then is here upon earth, for in Hell they do not punish the innocent |
