

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996396830503316
Autore	Scaife William
Titolo	A short relation of some words and expressions that were spoken by Barbara scaife in time of her sickness, a little before she departed this life [[electronic resource]] : she was betwixt fifteen and sixteen years of age, daughter to William and Issabel Scaife of the Blacksike near Appleby, in the county of Westmerland: in profession of the principles of light and life in Christ Jesus. Which those people commonly called Quakers do bear testimony to, and had fellowship with, from their child-hood, and had a care upon them to bring up their children in the fear of the Lord, and in the knowledge of that truth which they had believed in: and which their children were in their tender age truly acquainted with
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[[London, : s.n.], 1686]
Descrizione fisica	8 p
Soggetti	Quakers Smallpox - England Death
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Signed at end: William and Issabel Scaife. Place of publication from Wing; date of publication from colophon. With some account of Mary Scaife who also died of smallpox. Copy trimmed. Reproduction of the original in the Haverford College, Pennsylvania.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0063