

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996396846503316
Autore	Howesoun John
Titolo	A short exposition of the 20. and 21. verses of the third chapter of the first epistle of S. Iohn [[electronic resource]] : Containing a very profitable discourse of conscience, and of al the actions, sortes, and kinds thereof, wherby euery man may easily know his estate, wherein hee standeth in the sight of his God, and whether his conscience be good or euill, with all things also belonging either to get a good conscience, or else to releiue it out of trouble, being grieued and wounded, as in the epistle to the reader is more specially mentioned, and in the discourse itselſe clearely expressed
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Edinburgh, : Printed by Robert Waldegrauē, printer to the Kings Maiestie, Anno Dom. 1600
Descrizione fisica	[64] p
Soggetti	Conscience
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Signed at end: M. Iohn Howesoun. Running title reads: A discourse of conscience. Signatures: A-D. Reproduction of the original in the British Library. Foot of title page has: Cum priuilegio Regio.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018