Note generali	Introduction. "To the Christian reader" signed I.H. [i.e. John Humfrey] Mr Humfrey had gotten the notes from some who had took them by characters, and printed them in London ... which was a great wrong to Mr. Cotton ... for it had been fit he should have perused and corrected the copy before it had been printed."--Entry in Winthrop's Journal, 1642. (John Winthrop, History of N.E. Boston, 1826. II, 75). Most of the included sermons have separate pagination and register. Reproduction of original in: Yale University Library.
