Sommario/riassunto	Un testo pionieristico, rivoluzionario, divenuto un classico longseller oggi più attuale che mai. Uscito per la prima volta nel 1978, Il peso è una questione femminista mostra chiaramente come il peso e il grasso non riguardino semplicemente l'alimentazione e, al massimo, la salute pubblica; piuttosto, sono strettamente connessi con azioni come sfidare e proteggere, con componenti come il sesso, la forza, l'affermazione di sé, la rabbia, l'amore. Sono insomma parte di una complessa visione culturale, sociale e politica. In questa nuova edizione aggiornata Susie Orbach continua anche nell'epoca di Internet l'esplorazione del complicato rapporto di amore/odio che le donne hanno con il proprio corpo e con il cibo, spiega come trasformare quest'ultimo in un amico e trovare il modo di accettarsi per quello che si è.
