Sommario/riassunto	Cet ouvrage teste l'hypothese de Peter Geschiere, selon laquelle les elites bamileke ou bamenda de l'Ouest-Cameroun n'hesitent pas a investir concretement dans le developpement de leur terroir, contrairement a celles du Centre-Sud-Est. En effet, l'affinite ethnique entre les Mvele et Andre-Marie Mbida, chretien devenu premier Premier ministre du Cameroun, et leur defiance vis-a-vis d'Ahmadou Ahidjo, devenu premier President de la Republique, a entraine leur marginalisation. La construction de l'Etat chez les Mvele se heurte ainsi a des pesanteurs diverses, parmi lesquelles les luttes hegemoniques, la fracture entre elites et populations, la politique du ventre, ou encore la sorcellerie.
