Sommario/riassunto	Most recently, various groups have drawn attention to their political causes by demonstratively breaking the law, whether it is violating compulsory education in Fridays for Future demonstrations or refusing to abide by pandemic containment measures among critics of the Corona policy. This book explores what lies behind these rule-breaking events: supporters of the Fridays for Future movement, while dissatisfied with climate policy, are well integrated into the political system; people who do not abide by Corona rules, on the other hand, sometimes exhibit considerable alienation from and distrust of the political system. The authors Dr. Peter Kirsch is Head of the Department of Clinical Psychology at the Central Institute of Mental Health Mannheim and Professor of Clinical Psychology at the Medical Faculty Mannheim of Heidelberg University. Dr. Hanno Kube is Director of the Institute for Public Finance and Tax Law at Heidelberg University and holds the Chair of Public Law with Special Reference to Public Finance and Tax Law. Dr. Reimut Zohlnhöfer is Professor of Political Science with a focus on Comparative Policy Analysis at the Institute of Political Science at Heidelberg University. The translation was done with the help of artificial intelligence. A subsequent human revision was done primarily in terms of content.
